

Climate policy convention in Israel 2015 - Israel is preparing for Paris COP21¹
Sunday| June 7|Porter school of environmental studies | Tel Aviv University | Auditorium

Schedule
9:30 – 10:00	Registration (Café, light refreshments)
10:00 – 10:15	Greetings : chair Prof. Dan Rabinowitz , Head of Porter School of Environmental Studies, Tel Aviv University, Chairperson of AEJI Ms. Tamar Almog , Projects Director, Rosa Luxemburg Stiftung Ms. Carmit Lubanov , Director General, The Association of Environmental Justice in Israel (AEJI)
10:15 – 10:45	Opening Session : Chair Dr. Arie Neshet , professional director of The Porter School of Environmental Studies, Tel Aviv University Between Copenhagen and Paris - Navigation on the challenges map of national climate policy in Israel Prof. Dan Rabinowitz , Head of Porter School of Environmental Studies, Tel Aviv University, Chairperson of AEJI International dialogue and local networking for a global climate policy Ms. Gabriele Hermani , Science Councillor, The German Embassy in Israel
10:45 – 11:45	Session A: Policy Design to deal with climate change on national and international levels On Israel Climate plan for 2030 Dr. Gil Proactor , Head of Climate Change Department, Ministry of Environmental Protection GHG's Emissions in Israel in comparison to the world and to targets Mrs. Michal Shinwell , Senior Economist, The National Economy Council Climate Pricing and Carbon tax in the world and in Israel Mr. Roev Levy , Yale University, and The Association of Environmental Justice in Israel (AEJI)
11:45 – 12:00	Café break
12:00 – 13:00	Session B: Towards a new climate policy in Israel – economic and social challenges Chair Prof. Yossi Dahan , The Open University, Chairperson of Adva Center A legal perspective on Israel's obligation to reduce GHGs emissions, in light of Israel membership in the OECD Prof. Yoarm Margaliot , Tel Aviv University Climate Resilience of municipalities in Israel – Steps for social climate policy Mrs. Tamar Nuegarten , Tel Aviv University and The Association of Environmental Justice in Israel (AEJI) Estimating CO2 emissions from 'consumptions basket' of Israeli households – EIO analysis Ms. Liza Anisow , Tel Aviv University and The Association of Environmental Justice in Israel (AEJI)
13:00 – 13:40	Lunch

Next page:

¹ All the sessions will be in Hebrew, except the lecture by the Science Consellour Hermani at the opening session, and the session of The International Perspective. Simultaneous translation into English will be available.

13:40 – 14:20

International
Session

Session in English - The International perspective - Chair Prof. Dan Rabinowitz, Head of Porter school for Environmental studies, Tel Aviv University

Energy in France and the national policy to face climate change

Mr. Lionel Corre, Economic Counsellor, in charge of the Economic department at the French embassy in Israel

The Paris Protocol - a blueprint for tackling global climate change beyond 2020

Mr. Luigi Pratolongo, the Head of the Trade & Economic Section, The Delegation of the EU to Israel

14:20– 14:30

Café break

14:30 – 14:45

Public opinion survey on climate change and government policy 2003 - 2015

Ms. Liza Anisow, Porter School for Environmental studies, Tel Aviv University, and The Association of Environmental Justice in Israel (AEJI), Ms. Carmit Lubanov, The Association of Environmental Justice in Israel (AEJI), Mr. Tom Pesach, Tel Aviv University, Prof. Dan Rabinowitz, Porter School for Environmental studies, Tel Aviv University

Panel

14:45 - 16:00

Round Table Discussion: Paris COP21 - How should Israel advance its climate policy?

Moderator: Mr. Ran Abramson, Reporter and Editor, Foreign affairs desk, Calcalist

Discussants:

MK Dr. Dov Khenin, Chairperson of the Social-Environment Lobby at the Knesset

Mrs. Neta Meidáv, Policy & Negotiation Lead on MRV, International Climate Change, UK Government

Adv. Sharon Madal-Artzi, Head of Environmental Law, GKH Law Office

Mrs. Yael Cohen-Paran, CEO, The Israeli Forum of Energy

The Climate Convention is held in frame of Climate Justice Research and Policy Project, supported by the Rosa Luxemburg Stiftung